The City of Sartell was founded on October 5, 1907. The City of Sartell will be celebrating its Centennial in 2007. The Mississippi River runs through City of Sartell. Therefore its city limits are located in 2 Minnesota counties, Stearns and Benton. This book, Lumber, Paper, Valves and Progress History of Sartell Minnesota represents a combination of the history and folklore of the City of Sartell from the mid 1800's through 2006. The original stories and articles are compiled from history books, newspaper clippings, photographs, and church and families histories. It includes an introduction, founders of Sartell, early influential residents of Sartell, early days, Le Sauk Township and surrounding farm areas, the village, the Mississippi River, The Watab "Crick" Creek, businesses, attractions, entertainment, recreation, and summary. The chapter's text is complemented with photographs. It is a delightful factual account of Sartell's History.
